DAY 1 MONDAY 5TH JANUARY 2026

After a short and comfortable journey, we arrive in the capital of our province in time for morning coffee, giving you the whole day to enjoy at your own pace. You might like to wander the elegant streets and squares, browse the shops with their tempting January sales, or simply sit at a pavement café and watch the bustle of families preparing for the evening's festivities. Alicante's bars and restaurants are perfect for a leisurely lunch or an afternoon drink as the city begins to glow with twinkling lights.

As darkness falls, the excitement builds for the Three Kings Parade, one of Spain's most treasured traditions. The sound of energetic music echoes through the streets, while floats glitter with coloured lights and performers dance in dazzling costumes, before the Kings themselves, in all their splendour, make a truly majestic entrance. The procession is scheduled to start at 18:00 from Plaza Luceros and travels along Avenida Alfonso X El Sabio turning down Rambla Mendez Nunez on the corner where our hotel is located (route not confirmed for 2026). During the parade 3000kg of sweets and 2000 toys will be given out.

You can watch the parade by standing behind the 2 rows of seats, this way you can dip in and out or select a cafe along the route. Seats need to be purchased online in advance. There are 5,000 available. The cost is not yet confirmed, but in 2025 they were 4€ per seat. The tickets will go on sale on the 26th December at 10:00, they normally sell out in 5 minutes! I will send an email to remind you of this with a link to the payment page for the company providing the seating.

DAY 2 TUESDAY 6TH JANUARY 2026

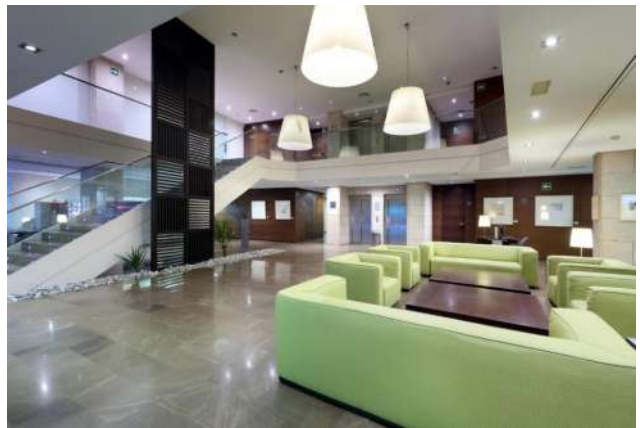

Enjoy a leisurely and delicious Hot Buffet Breakfast in the hotel which is served from 08:00 to 11:00, check out is at 12:00 when we depart. The 6th January is a Fiesta, known as a Red Day, so many of the shops and museums are closed. The city will have a very peaceful atmosphere and is perfect for a wander down to the beach or up to the castle and all of the locals will be out enjoying their morning coffees! The tram will be operating, so if you are an early riser you can take a ride to San Juan Beach for a wander along its stunning promenade.
