SUNDAY PIÑATA PARADE 11:00-19:00

DAY 1 SATURDAY 21ST FEBRUARY 2026

Setting off at 08:00, we have included a Menu del Dia and a photo stop at the Lagunas del Ruidera to fully enjoy the journey. We'll check into the 4* Hotel Exe Dona Carlota just before 17:00. The rest of the afternoon and evening is free for you to enjoy the vibrancy of the city of Ciudad Real. You can take a stroll along the Carnival Route to familiarise yourself for tomorrows extravaganza, stop at the Plaza Mayor with its bars and browse the shops in the surrounding streets. The Parque de Gasset is a must see with its famous beautifully elegant ornamental fountains.

DAY 2 SUNDAY 22ND FEBRUARY 2026

Start the day with a leisurely and filling Exe hot buffet breakfast. Then it is time for the epic Carnival Parade known as the Piñata, the dazzling finale of Carnival which fills the streets with vibrant floats, rhythmic music, and thousands of dancers in elaborate costumes.

This parade has been officially declared a Festival of Regional Tourist Interest. There are usually around 45 groups, each with close to a hundred members, meaning that more than 4,500 people take part in the spectacle. The groups begin to gather at 9:00 in the Parque de Gasset, from where the parade sets off at 11:00. The procession follows the city's main street for 1.5 kilometres, with each group taking around 90 minutes to complete the route, so the final participants reach the end at about 17:30. For the very best view of the action, seats are available along the parade route and last year were 5€ each, paid directly to the seat attendants. As the spectacular parade lasts for around six hours, most visitors prefer to stroll the streets, soaking up the lively atmosphere from different vantage points, and pausing to enjoy a drink or snack in one of the many cafés along the way.

The parade is also a National Competition of Carnival Groups, with a prize fund of around €30,000. The most prestigious award, the Arlequín de Oro, carries prize money of €6,500 and is regarded as the highest honour of the event.

DAY 3 MONDAY 23RD FEBRUARY 2026

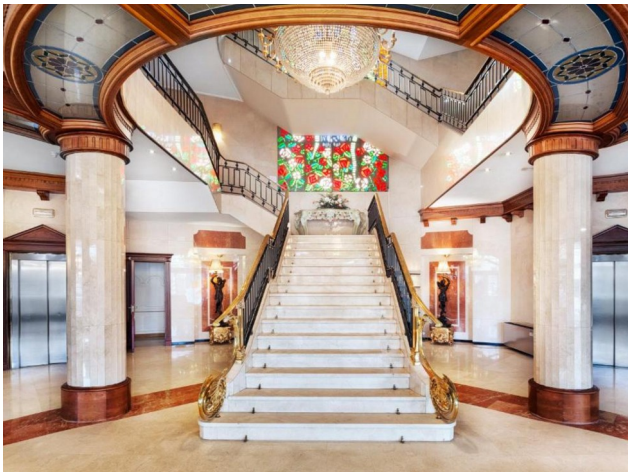

We begin the day with another sumptuous breakfast before setting off on our homeward journey. On the way, we pause in the nearby town of Miguelturra, whose Carnival celebrations have been awarded the distinction of National Tourist Interest. Here we will enjoy a guided visit to the fascinating Carnival Museum, followed by some free time to relax with a coffee. Continuing our journey, we stop en route to savour a delicious Menú del Día, before arriving back locally at approximately 18:00.
