TOUR INFORMATION....

Córdoba, is located in Andalusia and is a province rich in history, culture, and natural beauty. It is home to the city of Córdoba, famous for its UNESCO World Heritage sites like the stunning Mosque-Cathedral (Mezquita), a masterpiece of Islamic architecture. Beyond its cultural treasures, Córdoba's diverse landscapes include the Sierra de la Subbética, a mountain range in the province's southern region. These limestone mountains offer rugged beauty, dotted with olive groves and picturesque white-washed villages. They also have their very own patio route, castles, industry and stunning view points which are too numerous to mention

THE JOURNEYS

We depart around 8am in the morning on the first day, and make 1 short and 1 long comfort stop during the journey. For the long stop we will enjoy a Bocadillo Lunch with a Drink (included) in a little village on route. Our aim is to arrive at our delightful village hotel around 15:00.

We will depart mid-morning for the return journey, giving us time to visit a local place of interest before leaving. We'll make a long stop for a Menu del Dia (included) and then another quick comfort break and aim to arrive back around 19:45.

THE HOTEL

We stay in a delightful village within the Subbética Mountains. This well run establishment has a lift and all rooms have walk in showers. It has a booking.com rating of 8.9 and google rating of 4.5. We dine each night from a Menu del Noche in the hotel which includes a drink and breakfast is Spanish style. It is situated in the narrow streets of the old town, so there is a flat walk of 200 metres with your luggage.

CORDOBA

We spend a full day in the capital of the province, Cordoba. Arriving early in the morning there is free time to explore this fascinating city. You can visit the Alcázar de los Reyes Cristianos (5€) explore the 7 Patios which are open all year round without the hours of queues and crowds of the festival (6.50€) or enjoy the splendour of the Palacio de Viana (12€) with its 12 patios full of flora. Wander around the narrow streets of the Jewish Quarter, pop into the boutique shops, explore the artists souk and have a relaxing lunch. We have a guided tour of the world famous Mesquita booked for the afternoon (optional -10€) and then we have a good sit down for the journey back to our hotel for our evening meal

We have a two day adventure exploring the rest of the province, particularly the captivating Subbética Mountains. These picturesque villages are treasure troves, each brimming with its own unique charm and countless hidden gems. Wander through quaint, picturesque streets and discover the Natural Park's famed patios, showcasing Andalusia's iconic flower-filled courtyards. Immerse yourself in the rich culture by visiting some local museums and artisan producers, where you can savour local gastronomic delights like anis and jamon. The panoramic views from the area's stunning miradores (viewpoints) are simply breathtaking, offering unrivalled vistas of the landscape. We take scenic drives through the vast olive groves, catch glimpses of the glistening reservoirs, visit the local museums and explore the majestic castles and historic churches that dot the region. Whether you're a lover of nature, history, or culinary excellence, the Subbética Mountains provide an unforgettable experience with something special around every corner.
