DAY 1 THURSDAY 2ND APRIL 2026

A lovely midday start on Maundy Thursday for the journey to the Hotel in Alhama de Murcia. Time to check in, unpack and relax, before the journey to Lorca. We arrive in Lorca with plenty of time to find our seats in the 1st & 2nd rows of the Paseo Azul end section and get a bit to eat (or you can bring a picnic with you) before for the amazing spectacle of the Easter Parade begins. With a mixture of biblical, artistic and horsemanship skills and above all the simply stunning costumes, the parade will have you mesmerised for the evening. The Parade should finish around 23:00, after which we will make the 40km journey back to the hotel.

DAY 2 FRIDAY 3RD APRIL 2026

After the hotel breakfast you can head out to the centre of Alhama de Murcia for the fabulous morning procession. The parade starts at 10:00 and all of the floats meet in the Plaza at 11:00. The brotherhoods of Alhama de Murcia are particularly well known for the floral displays with which they decorate their thrones. Once checked out, we journey to Mula for another special Easter treat – the Tambores. These are drums which on this day, mark the death of Christ and the town is filled with the beat of several hundred drummers playing their own homage. The Tambores of Mula were declared as being of International Interest in 2022 and leave an unforgettable impression. We journey back, arriving locally at approximately 16:30.
