DAY 1 MONDAY 22ND FEBRUARY 2027

Leaving around 06:30 we make two quick comfort breaks on the journey as well as a longer break in a small hamlet where we enjoy a Bocadillo lunch – a roll filled with either chicken, serrano ham or machego cheese and a drink (included) Here we have time to stretch our legs before continuing. We aim to arrive at the hotel at 15:30 for check in, so you can dive straight into the city.

DAY 2 TUESDAY 23RD FEBRUARY 2027

After breakfast, the whole day is free time for you to explore Sevilla. The Hotel Don Paco, chosen for its location is just a kilometre from the Cathedral of Sevilla, one of the largest Gothic cathedrals in the world – climb its Giralda Tower for panoramic views of the city. Just steps away is the Real Alcázar, a breathtaking royal palace with lush gardens and intricate Moorish design (advanced booking of these 3 is recommended). Right next door lies the Archives of the Indies, a UNESCO World Heritage Site housing priceless documents from Spain's colonial past. There is Plaza de España to admire, a stunning semi-circular masterpiece in Parque María Luisa, where you can take a stroll past the tiled alcoves representing every province in Spain. History buffs will enjoy the Military Museum, while the nearby Museum of Arts and Popular Customs offers a charming insight into Andalusian life. Sevilla's strong ties to bullfighting can be explored at the Plaza de Toros and its dedicated Bullfighting Museum, rich in tradition and artistry. Along the river, don't miss the iconic Torre del Oro, home to the Naval Museum, showcasing Sevilla's maritime legacy. Cross the bridge to Triana, the spirited neighbourhood famous for flamenco and ceramics - visit the Triana Ceramic Museum and the historic San Jorge Castle, built over the remains of the Spanish Inquisition headquarters. Modern meets traditional at Las Setas (The Mushrooms), a contemporary wooden structure offering a skywalk and stunning cityscape views. For a touch of elegance, step into Casa Palacio de Dueñas, a noble residence filled with antiques and charm. Locals love the laid-back Alameda de Hércules, a trendy square brimming with cafés, art, and character. Seek spiritual beauty at the Basilica de la Macarena, home of Sevilla's most beloved religious icon. Sports fans can explore the passion of football with behind-the-scenes tours of Sevilla CF and Real Betis stadiums, while those seeking relaxation can enjoy a tranquil river cruise along the Guadalquivir, soaking in the sights from the water.

DAY 3 WEDNESDAY 224TH FEBRUARY 2027

After a relaxed breakfast you have another full day to explore the delights of Sevilla.

If you have booked the optional Gin Tour with Tasting we will leave from the hotel at 15:00, it is advisable to have enjoyed a hearty lunch first! We journey 45 mins to the legendary Puerto de Indias distillery, one of the oldest in Andalusia and the birthplace of Spain's famous strawberry gin. Set in a historic 19th-century building in the town of Carmona, this distillery blends time-honoured craftsmanship with bold innovation. Here, we'll enjoy a fascinating guided tour through the copper stills and aromatic botanicals that have put Puerto de Indias on the global gin map. Learn about the distillation process, the story behind their iconic pink gin, and how a family-run business became a worldwide success. Of course, no visit would be complete without a tasting session, where you can savour the signature flavours and perhaps discover a new favourite. We return to Sevilla around 19:00, whilst the evening is still young!

DAY 4 THURSDAY 25TH FEBRUARY 2027

After a relaxed breakfast you have another morning to explore the delights of Sevilla.

At 14:00 we leave the hotel and make the 45 minute drive to the Sand Quarry. We meet our local guides, hop aboard the tourist train and journey into the heart of the iconic quarry where millions of years of earth history come alive in glowing golden stone. We'll uncover the fascinating origins of Andalusia's most famous sediment, exploring how this prehistoric sea bed was transformed into the legendary golden earth that surfaces Spain's most celebrated bullrings, parks, sherry houses and historic landmarks. . We aim to be back in Sevilla around 18:00, so you can enjoy your final evening in the city.

DAY 5 FRIDAY 26TH FEBRUARY 2026

After breakfast we will depart the hotel for the journey home. We have 2 quick comfort breaks and a longer stop at a Restaurant near Baza for a Menu del Dia (included).

3* CITY CENTRE HOTEL DON PACO

The Hotel Don Paco is a centrally located hotel, outside of which the coach can stop to load and unload, which is important for the luggage. It has a Booking.com rating of 7.9 Good and a Google rating of 3.9. Buffet breakfast is from 07:00 to 10:00. The reviews comment on its cleanness, good selection for breakfast and its friendly staff. However the soundproofing is a little lacking, which packing ear plugs will solve.

The hotel Don Paco has been chosen for its location in a lively neighbourhood with a great choice of bars and restaurants. Its is situated just km from the Giralda Tower, 1.2km from the Royal Alcazar, 600 meters from the iconic Mushrooms and 1.2km from the buzzing Alameda de Hercules Tapas Plaza.
